

Family Activities Bingo

Color in the ones you complete. Can you get a blackout?

Cooking

Help to cook a bear shaped food. Pancakes?
Hamburgers? Tacos?

Afternoon Tea

Plan an afternoon tea (or another beverage). Make invitations and have family members RSVP. Be a good host.

Makerspace

At home, use recycled materials to make a character, scene, animal, or object from the book.

Family Chat

Duane makes many friends. Discuss how to make friends. What things are most important in a friendship?

Science Experiment

C.C. says "salt lowers the freezing point (of water) by absorbing the energy from around it, causing the ice to melt." Design a science experiment to see if this is true.

Snack Share

Help to prepare a snack that looks like one of the characters in the book. Share, eat and enjoy!

Music

Write a song either about one of the characters, or for one of the characters. Perform it using a musical instrument (anything from a simple kitchen pan with a wooden spoon to a piano.)

Make a bookmark

Anything that goes with the book is fine. Like origami? Here's one to try:

Word Find

How many words can you find using the letters from "The Very, Very Far North"? (For example: have, thorn, forth, favor, etc.) Mrs. Cervera found 100. Can you beat that?

Polar Bear Craft

Make a polar bear (or other book animal) from a toilet paper roll, construction paper, milk jug, or any other material you like!

Family Nicknames

Duane names his friends as he meets them. If he spent a day with your family, what names do you think he would give everyone in your family?

Charades

Take turns acting out the characters in the book without any words. Have family members guess who.
